TAKEN UP WRIT PETITION No.24444 OF 2006

ORAL ORDER: (per the Hon'ble Mr. Justice D.S.R.Varma)

Heard the learned Government Pleader for Home, representing the learned Advocate General, appearing for the respondents.

2. This writ petition is taken up on the basis of a telegram, dated 19.11.2006, by Smt.T.P. Sarada, the petitioner, to the Hon'ble the Chief Justice, High Court of Andhra Pradesh, Hyderabad, alleging that her daughter, by name Kum.T.P. Subba Lakshmi, is missing after attending the office from 14.11.2006; that she suspect that her step brothers by name T.P.Raj Kumar and T.P.Naresh Kumar and their accomplices to settle the scores over the property being her house and that the police are not taking appropriate action.

3. In pursuance of the notice, issued by this Court, the Inspector of Police, Chikkadpally Police Station, Hyderabad, filed counter- affidavit stating, inter alia, that the dead body of a woman was found in a gunny bag in a decomposed state near Aramghar Chourasta, Rajendra Nagar Police Station limits on 22.11.2006, which was subsequently identified to be the corpse of the missing woman. It is further stated that, on complaint by the petitioner, a case in Crime No.575 of 2006 was registered under the head 'Women Missing' on 15.11.2006 at Chikkadpally Police Station; that when the file in the said crime number was transferred, the Station House Officer, Narayanaguda Police Station, Hyderabad, re-registered the same as Crime No.380 of 2006 under the head 'Woman Missing' on 22.11.2006 and that when the petitioner has identified the cloths and dead body of her daughter, the Station House Officer, Rajendra Nagar Police Station, Ranga Reddy, has registered a case in Crime No.1165 of 2006 for the offences punishable under Sections 302 and 201 of the Indian Penal Code and the investigation is in progress.

4. Having regard to the fact that the dead body of the missing woman was found a case was registered and investigation is going on, nothing remains for adjudication in this writ petition.

5. For the foregoing, the writ petition is liable to be closed and accordingly the same is closed. However, there shall be no order as to costs.
